Tracy S. Hatch joins The Nashua Bank
As Business Development Officer

For Immediate Release

Nashua, NH - The Nashua Bank is pleased to announce that Tracy S. Hatch of Nashua recently joined the bank as Business Development Officer. A seasoned business professional with close ties to Greater Nashua, Hatch will be responsible for establishing new banking relationships in the community.

“We are thrilled to have Tracy join our growing organization,” said G. Frank Teas, President & CEO of The Nashua Bank. “She brings many years of leadership and a proven track record of cultivating relationships.”

Hatch brings to The Nashua Bank a diverse background in the non-profit, for-profit and government sectors. After serving as legislative liaison for three governors, Tracy spent two years on Capitol Hill with the House Committee on Education and Labor before returning to New Hampshire where she worked as Director of Development for several non-profits and a high-tech computer programming company. She spent the past five years working for the Greater Nashua Chamber of Commerce as Director of Membership and Sales, working to identify, recruit and retain area businesses as active members of the Chamber.

Active in community affairs, Hatch is a member and Past President of the Rotary Club of Nashua and currently serves as a member of the Board of The Huntington at Nashua. She previously served two terms on Nashua's Board of Aldermen, as Chairman of the New Hampshire State Board of Education, and on the Boards of the Adult Learning Center, Nashua's Destination Downtown, Bishop Guertin High School and as President of the New Hampshire Flames AAU Girls Basketball League.
