The Nashua Bank Sponsors Lecius Trophy

For Immediate Release

Nashua, NH - G. Frank Teas, President and CEO of The Nashua Bank, announced today that the Bank will once again be the sponsor for the annual Edward F. Lecius Memorial trophy presented to the winner of the Nashua High North – South Thanksgiving Day football game on November 25.

“For 30 years, Ed Sr. calling high school sports was a tradition at WOTW and WSMN. As Nashua’s only locally owned bank we want to continue being part of this great Nashua tradition,” Teas said.

Reacting to the announcement, Ed Lecius, Jr. said; “Our two families have grown up in this city and we are pleased to have The Nashua Bank join our family in remembering my father.”

The award originally began with WSMN when Nashua played Bishop Guertin and was renamed in honor of Ed senior following his death in 1976. Since that time the Lecius family has continued the presentation which switched to the winner of the North-South Turkey Day game with the opening of both schools.

This year’s game will be broadcast on AM1590-WSMN beginning at 9 a.m. and will mark five decades of broadcasting high school football by the younger Lecius.
