

Contact: Angela Provencher
(603) 882-2700

The Nashua Bank Announces Two New Directors – Both Bring Decades of Financial Services Industry Experience

For Immediate Release

Nashua, NH - The Nashua Bank recently named two new Directors of the bank who bring a total of 50 years in the financial services industry. Joining The Nashua Bank's Board are Eric G. Hoerner of Lancaster, PA and Kenneth J. Anderson of Hollis, NH.

“We are very pleased to have people of both Eric Hoerner's and Ken Anderson's personal and professional caliber helping to lead our Bank,” said G. Frank Teas, President & CEO of The Nashua Bank. “The experience and vision they both bring to our Board is really outstanding and another reason why I and our Board feel we are well positioned as we continue to grow our local services and banking business.”

Eric Hoerner founded Greenleaf Financial Group, LLC in 2006 and currently serves as CEO and Chief Investment Officer of Greenleaf. Greenleaf manages a series of private investment partnerships that invest primarily in community banks across the U.S. He began his investment banking career in 1985 and spent more than 21 years covering financial institutions in the Mid Atlantic region. Hoerner spent 15 of those years as a senior banker with Tucker Anthony and predecessor firms. Prior to founding Greenleaf, he was a Senior Managing Director and a Board Member of Griffin Financial Group, LLC, a leading boutique investment banking firm also serving the Mid Atlantic states. Hoerner is a CPA (inactive) and received a B.S.B.A degree in accounting from Bucknell University. He also holds FINRA Series 7 and 24 licenses.

Ken Anderson owns and operates several businesses that leverage his 20-plus years in the financial services industry. Prior to his many private ventures and businesses, Anderson spent 13 years at Fidelity Investments as a corporate bond trader, analyst and portfolio manager. He managed several multi-billion dollar portfolios over a 6-year period at Fidelity and was presented with the I-Money Net “Manager of the Year Award” in 2007, 2008 and 2009. Anderson also worked 5 years as a bond trader at Morgan Stanley in

New York and London and 3 years as a loan officer at Citibank in New York. He received his undergraduate education from Northeastern University as an accounting/finance major and his graduate education from Northwestern University.

For more information on The Nashua Bank, go to www.thenashuabank.com.

Founded on October 1st, 2007, The Nashua Bank was organized by nine local business leaders to provide banking solutions for small and medium sized businesses, consumers and professionals in the greater Nashua marketplace. The Nashua Bank is governed by a directorate of 15 and is owned by over 200 local shareholders. Our full service banking office is conveniently located in downtown Nashua at the corner of Main and East Pearl Street. We have plenty of free parking and are here to provide banking solutions for you Monday through Friday 9:00am to 5:00pm, Thursday until 7:00pm and Saturday from 9:00am to Noon.

The Nashua Bank is a member of FDIC and is an Equal Housing Lender.