The Nashua Bank Names New Vice Chairman of Board

For Immediate Release

Nashua, NH - The Nashua Bank announces the recent election of a new Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors. Lorin S. Rydstrom, who has served on the Board since the Bank's founding in 2007, brings a strong business and fiscal auditing background to his new role.

“We are very pleased to be able to have someone of Lorin’s expertise and tested character now serving as Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors,” said G. Frank Teas, President & CEO of The Nashua Bank. “Lorin has been a leader in the wholesale lumber and distribution business and he has also given his time serving in public office in the Hollis community where he lives. We believe that as The Nashua Bank grows and meets new demands and challenges in the marketplace, Lorin’s multi-faceted business background will serve the Board’s leadership and Bank’s needs well.”

Teas further cites Rydstrom’s fiscal expertise as a key asset as the Bank grows well beyond the $100 Million asset mark. Rydstrom has worked for Seaboard International Forest Products, LLC or affiliated companies since 1973. He was President of Seaboard International Forest Products since he founded the division in 1983. In 2003, Rydstrom was part of a group that organized an amicable ESOP purchase of the company from its publicly owned parent company and now serves on the Board of the ESOP. Currently, Rydstrom also serves on the Board of the Beaver Brook Association.
