

The Nashua Bank to Sponsor Lecius Trophy For Turkey Bowl Winner

For the third consecutive year, The Nashua Bank will sponsor the Edward F. Lecius Memorial trophy given to the winner of the Nashua High North-South Turkey Bowl scheduled for November 26 at Stellos Stadium.

In making the announcement, G. Frank Teas bank president said; "For thirty years Ed Lecius, Sr. was the voice of high school football in Nashua as the only locally owned bank we are proud to sponsor this award."

From 1946 to 1976 Ed Lecius, Sr. brought the excitement of high school games into the homes of Nashua residents beginning with WOTW and later WSMN. Following his death an award was established for the winner of the Thanksgiving Day game in his honor. Originally it went to the winner of the BG-Nashua game and was continued when the North-South rivalry was established.

Ed Sr., Teas' dad Frank, the late Al Rock and Ed Lecius, Jr. were all part of the WSMN sports broadcast team in Nashua. The younger Lecius has been tabbed once again to broadcast the North-South game on AM1590 Thanksgiving Day.

The pre-game show will begin at 9am.
