The Nashua Bank Makes Donation to YMCA of Greater Nashua – Donation Supports the New Hampshire Community Development Investment Program

For Immediate Release

Nashua, NH - In a move to support several nonprofit projects in the Greater Nashua area, The Nashua Bank announces the donation of $20,000 to the YMCA through the New Hampshire Community Development Finance Authority's (CDFA) 'Tax Credit Program'.

"We are pleased to make this donation," said G. Frank Teas, President & CEO of The Nashua Bank. "This program with the YMCA makes a real difference because the funds go to support so many different nonprofit programs which are all vital to helping our community and those groups in need. The fact is our local community is made stronger by the good work of our nonprofits."

The CDFFA awards tax credits to a number of nonprofits for projects that range from creating affordable housing to establishing facilities to revitalize downtowns. The CDFFA projects are also aimed at keeping existing employment for moderate-income New Hampshire residents. These nonprofits raise donations from New Hampshire businesses that can use the CDFFA Tax Credit program to help reduce their tax liability in the State. The result is a true win-win for the greater community.

"At The Nashua Bank, we take great pride in being an important resource and part of the local community," said Teas. "This partnership and program with the YMCA and the CDFFA is a good example of how we can make a positive difference in the lives of many people in our community."
